Message:

The Third Dimension

We love making K-Zone mag in 3-D 'cos we get to wear 3-D glasses at work! So, when we heard about the new movie, Cloudy With A Chance Of Meatballs, and the idea of it raining food, we thought it'd be totally wicked to make it happen in K-Zone too! Put on your 3-D specs and race to page 48 to see where all the 3-D fun begins. But, it doesn't stop there - eyeball the 3-D Cloudy poster and search for five foods that have dropped from the sky and landed straight onto the pages of this issue. Head to the Monster Prize Vault on page 28 and see what you could score once you find the 3-D food. Happy hunting! - Mel

DIG DEEP AND UNEARTH FACTS ABOUT THESE LEGLESS LEGENDS!

Worms help to add food to the soil. They are the best friends you have!

Worms live in almost all parts of the world, including deserts and frozen weather habitats.

The worm farm is used to get you and better some tracks as they dig through under colored soil.

Earthworms are the most common type of worm and have been around for 120 million years!

Many types of worms are decomposers, which means they eat dead plants and animals and give them as fertilizer. That's why they're awesome in compost bins!

THE K-Z REPORT

CHOW DOWN ON THESE FREAKAZOID FOOD STORIES,
COMING TO YOU LIVE FROM SWALLOW FALLS!

BURGER BLIZZARD

A café in Oz is challenging customers to eat a supersized burger. Sound easy? Well, it's made with 1.5kg of beef, 20 pieces of bacon, eight eggs, nine cheese slices, six tomatoes, three onions, one lettuce, tomato sauce, mayonnaise and a massive 28cm bun. Phew – that's definitely biting off more than you can chew!

GAME FORCE GRASSHOPPERS

A fave taco topping in Mexico isn't guacamole, it's grasshoppers! This seasonal delicacy is crunchy and crisp, just like popcorn. Plus, apparently it's good for your health. Eyewitnesses tell us that once you grasshop, you can't stop!

SILKWORM SOUP SHOWERS

Move over pumpkin and tomato, there's a new soup in town. Silkworm pupae (young silkworm) soup is a popular South Korean dish. It's a clear broth with boiled or steamed silkworms and reports say this strange dish tastes like crab. Apparently the aroma from cooking it can be smelt up to a block away – silky and smelly sounds yum... NOT!

COLOSSAL CUPCAKE CONDITIONS

Attack of the monster-sized sponge! A vanilla cupcake made in the US has smashed the record for the World's Largest Cupcake, weighing in at 555kg. More than eight times the size of the previous record holder, it took 12 hours to bake and was made from 800 eggs and 90kg each of sugar and flour!

WEATHER REPORT

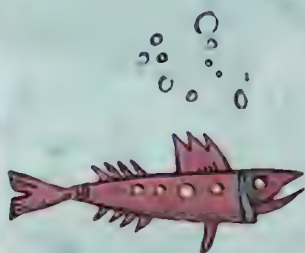

Sam Sparks from the Weather News Network would normally be dishing up this report, but she's busy being surrounded by giant, people eating chickens (just in case you were wondering). Anyways... Keep your umbrella handy 'cos we're forecasting Cloudy With A Chance Of Meatballs here in Swallow Falls.

THE REAL IRO

Hit the surf with Australian Champion Ironman, Zane H takes to be a legend lifesaver.

King Of The Waves

Zane is a six-time Australian Ironman Champion, former World Open Ironman Champion and winner of the 2006 Coolangatta Gold surf race, one of the most gruelling events on the planet!

Maxed Out Skills

Ironmen like Zane need a lot of surf skills and they're among the fittest athletes around. They have to be able to run, swim, paddle and board equally as well as one another.

Marathon Man

A typical week for this fitness freak is swimming five to six kilometres every morning and then training on a board or surf ski in the afternoons. Zane then combines everything into a practice Ironman race on Saturdays.

NMAN

olmes and learn what it

Nipper-misc!

Zane says the best way to become an Ironman is to, "Join your local Nippers and have a bit of fun with it. Learn the basics and the skills in the ocean, train hard because nothing comes easy, and enjoy it!"

Hard Hawaii

Once you're a pro Ironman, you get to compete in xtreme events like the Molokai paddleboard race in Hawaii, where you paddle from one island to another. It's a 57km event and it took Zane five and a half hours to complete!

Lifesavin' Ungo

Don't get caught outside the flags - remember these gnarly beach words.

Lifeguards

Professional men and women that patrol the beach to make it safe

Pro lifeguard

A pro lifeguard that competes in special competitions

Nippers

Junior lifesavers

Paddleboard

K-Z SPORTS STARS

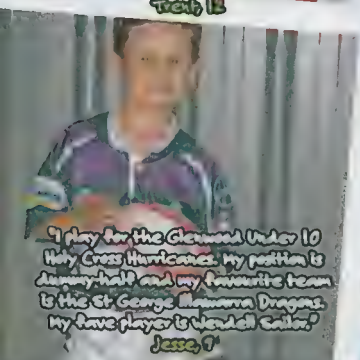

These cool K-Zoners are bustin' out in their team colours!

"I play for the Tower Hamlets Titans rugby league team. My position in the team is a forward. Last year my team was undefeated and we won the grand final!"
Christian, 9

"I have played soccer for the Mitcham Jets for six years. I represent my school in touch footy and have a purple belt in taekwondo."
Travis, 12

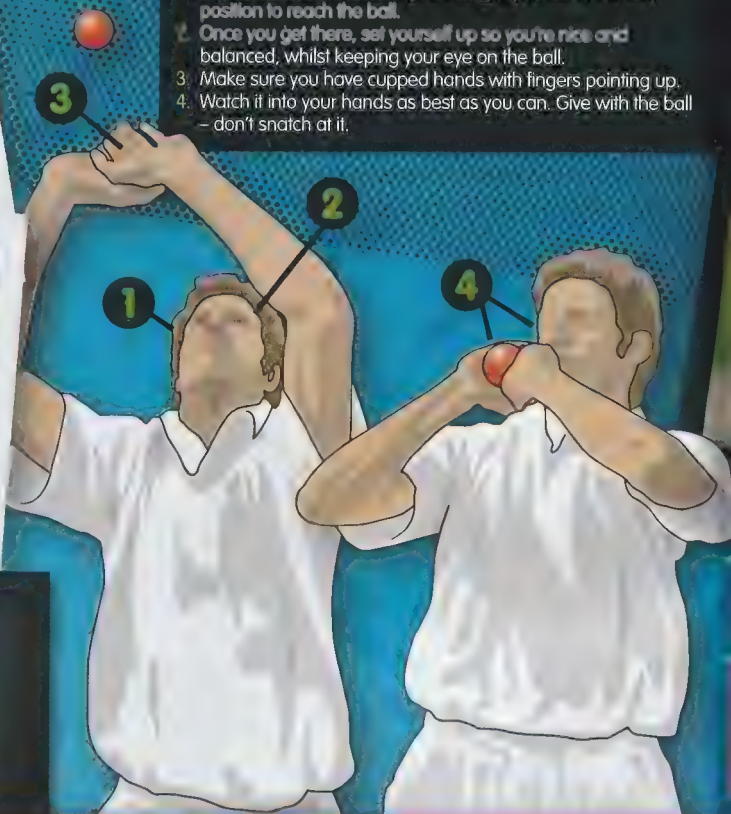

"I play for the Glenwood Under 10 Holy Cross Hurricanes. My position is dummy-half and my favourite team is the St George Illawarra Dragons. My favourite player is Wendell Sailor."

Orthodox catch

1. Expect the ball to come to you and get into a good, balanced position. Keep your head still and set your feet.
2. Take the ball with either your fingers up or fingers down (whichever feels more comfortable), with your hands cupped together. Make sure you don't catch it like a crocodile, with one hand up, one hand down.
3. Keep your eye on the ball all the way into your hands.
4. Give with the ball and move your hands with it (so you don't snatch at it).

you take a nice catch!

WAKEBOARD WARRIOR

Aussie Josh Sanders rules the wakeboarding world!

ROCKIN' RECORD SMASHER!

K2: What led you into wakeboarding?

JS: My bro and his friends used to ride behind our family fishing boat with a surfboard, and that quickly progressed to wakeboarding.

K2: How would you describe your career?

JS: Definitely winning the US Pro Tour of Wakeboarding and the King Of Wake in 2005. They are the biggest and most prestigious events to win.

K2: You've got the record for busting the K2 rail trick on a wakeboard. What was grinding that like?

JS: It was scary and exciting at the same time. The rail was attached to a houseboat, so it was constantly moving!

K2: You're known for your 'Fat Chance 540.' What's it come?

JS: A 'Fat Chance 540.' It's a pretty technical trick – a lot of flipping and spinning at the same time.

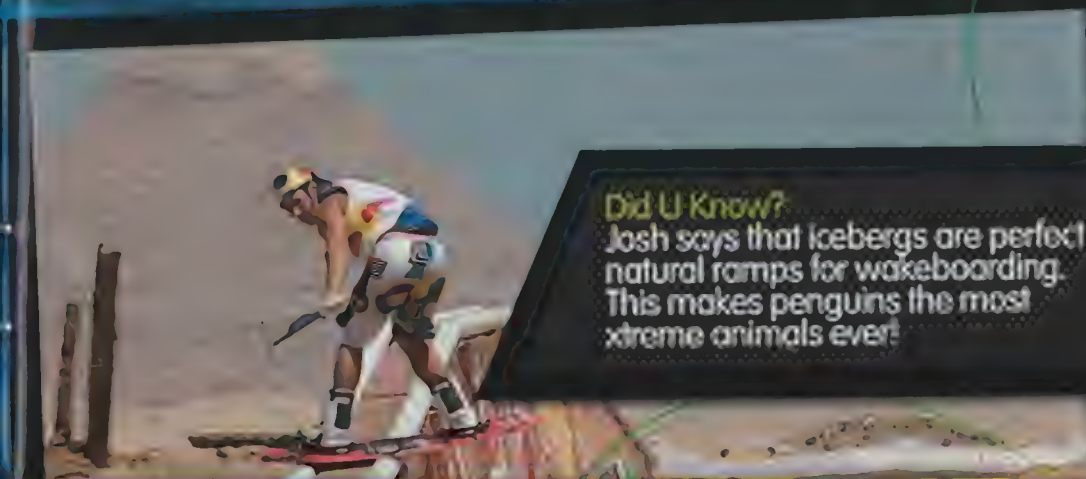

H2-WHOOOAA!!!

KZ: You've also bagged a lot of firsts in your life. How'd you get that first wakeboard? JS: We built a 30m pole in front of the pyramid, with a pole at either end and I got pulled by a winch over the rails. The whole project was a huge adventure and we were pretty scared when we pulled it off.

KZ: And at the other extreme scale, you're a total ice cream addict, right? JS: How'd you do that? KZ: Water minus a million degrees cold. JS: It was freezing! Let's see, we used to tow us close to the icebergs and then I would jump up onto them on my wakeboard and slide them.

KZ: Wicked! Finally, did you have the best part about being an extreme athlete? JS: Traveling the world, meeting people, and getting to do something I love every day!

Did U Know?
Josh says that icebergs are perfect natural ramps for wakeboarding. This makes penguins the most extreme animals ever!

SUPER SONGS

Treat your ears and turn up these top tunes!

Sean Kingston Tomorrow

The seven supersonic's latest single has it stepped back around first class, his smooth vocals to show. The summery lyrics and tropical-scented sound combine to make a sure bet: it'll want get you into the groove.

SEAN KINGSTON TOMORROW

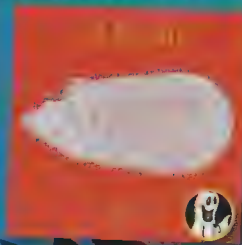

Damien Leith To Get To You

Sleeping beauty has a new voice and crooning. The 2010 Aussie hit-writer is back and he sounds better than ever. With slick production giving off a Coldplay vibe, his song is a catchy slice of pop-rock you that you'll think twice to let.

The Mess Hall Bell

The Aussie rock duo serve up raw bluesy rock with this new track. It's gritty and speedy, with a heavy bassline and organ riffs. Guaranteed, it'll don't come around the block, but transport you into their dirty world.

Vanessa Amorosi This Is Who I Am

American big rock is back and ready to battle for heavy. Vanessa Amorosi's new single is a hard-hitting, fast-paced, and full of speed. It's a real treat for you, in a real way.

HANGIN' 10 WITH TOM JORDAN

We kick back with the cool Aussie up 'n' comer!

When I was younger... I used to listen to AC/DC and fell in love with their music. Then I started guitar lessons and realised it wasn't that easy! Hahahahaha
My music in five words... Organic. Melodic. Upbeat. Myself. Soulful.

Fave muso... John Mayer. I love every single one of his songs. He's definitely my biggest influence.
Last CD I loved... Shaka Rock by Jeff. There are so many strong songs, they're all super catchy and it rocks!

When I'm not playing music, I... Chill with friends, go to the beach and I love photography.
People don't know that I... Eat my food in a clockwise direction around the plate. LOL!
I'm pumped about... The release of my album! I'm really happy with how it's turned out and I can't wait for it to get out there, so people can hear it!

KING OF THE ANTS

Build your very own ant world at home and you'll be able to watch every move these crazy little critters make.

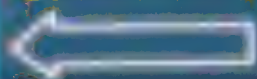

Get ready for some serious fun with Ant-o Sphere. Once you put together the cool, spaceship-like pods, you're ready to go. Tubes connect the spheres like tunnels in real ant chambers. All you need to do is get out into the garden and catch yourself some ants to live there. Add water, soil and some plants to grow food, then watch these amazing creatures as they form alliances, have meetings, clean their new home, look after their babies and even go into battle.

QUICK FACT

When ants go to war, they take away the eggs of the colonies they defeat. When the eggs hatch, the new ants become "slaves". They might take care of other eggs and babies, gather food or build anthills.

1 MONKEY MAGIC Steve has a one-track mind (HUNGRY!), so start off simple. With a pencil, draw his basic form – a square-ish head, oval body, curvy arms, long tail and thin fingers and toes.

2 GOIN' BANANAS Now move onto the chimp's face. He's got big oval eyes, a half-oval mouth and fur around his face. Add Steve's ears, then draw an antenna and headband on his noggin.

3 GET TECHIE Draw the Monkey Thought Translator on Steve's torso. It's made up of circles and lines. Now sketch his furry tummy and add deets to his tail.

4 CHIMP IT! Steve's got loooong arms and frog-like legs. His feet look like hands and his toes look like fingers! Add fur on his limbs to finish off his monkey suit.

5 STUNT STAR STEVE The monkey is almost made! Go over the main pencil lines with pen. Let the pen dry, rub out the pencil, give your chimp some colour, and add a meatball mayhem background.

HOW TO DRAW

Chance of Meatballs sketches!

WAVE TO THE MEATBALL! With a pencil, lightly sketch Flint's form. He's waving with his right hand and the inventor is made up of ovals and straight lines.

HE'S SMILING NOW... Flint's sorta chilled out, 'cos a meatball hasn't hit him yet! Draw his eyes, eyebrows, nose and mouth. Give him messy hair and don't forget his ears.

PUT ON HIS LAB COAT Every inventor should look the part. Draw Flint's collar, lab coat, buttons and belt. He's a pretty skinny guy, so his arms are long and thin. He's got one hand shut and one waving, with sausage fingers!

TIME TO LEG IT! Flint needs legs to run away from giant food. Draw his thin legs, then shoes. Grab a pen and go over the main lines of your drawing. When the inventor looks insane, let the pen dry and rub out the pencil.

THE LAST COURSE It's cloudy with a chance of colour! Colour in your drawing, then add whatever crazy background you want. Hotdog hail and donut disaster are on the menu and on the weather report!

WRONG ANSWER!

I was doing a test at school, when I did a loud fart. Everybody laughed and the teacher told me to stop doing it. So shameful!!!!!!

Jeffrey, 9

STINK-FEST

Once I was bustling to go to the toilet, but I didn't make it and poed my pants. When I got back to class it stunk and everyone made comments like, "What is that stink?!" and "YUCK!!!" I was really embarrassed.

GET OUT OF...

BEING QUIET IN CLASS

Don't freak, but there's a whole breed of kid-munching aliens that are attracted by quiet classrooms. The good news is that noisy classrooms fill their tracking systems with interference. So, the more laughing, chatting, music and farts, the less chance aliens will invade. Let's live loud and keep those aliens at bay!

CLOTHES SHOPPING

I know that I need to get a new set of threads but I'm not allowed in any clothes shops. You see, I recently discovered my evil look-alike has been visiting clothes shops, pretending to be me, and then dumping massive farts. I'll never be allowed past the front door, 'cos the shop owners will think I'm gonna stink the place up!

Squeaky Clean

Raid your mum or big sister's nail polish stash and grab some clear nail polish. Paint it all over a bar of soap and let it dry. When someone tries to lather up, they won't be able to get any bubbles happening. Foam-free funny!

Mad Milk

Carefully put a couple of drops of food colouring in a milk container that's not clear and doesn't have much milk left. We recommend using red or green food colouring, so it looks extra crazy. Then wait for the shock when your fam pours out the mad milk.

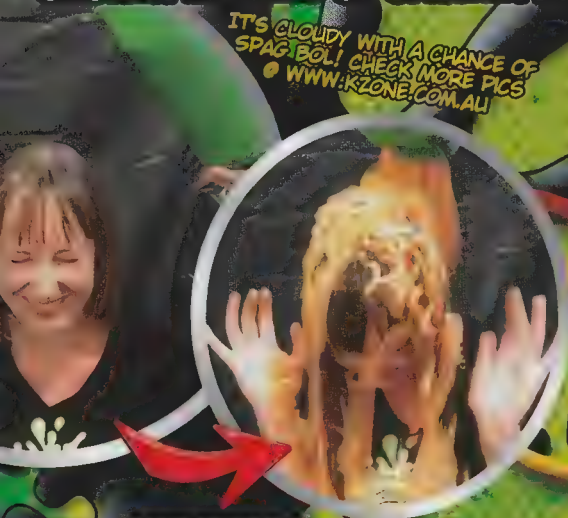

Q. Why can't a leopard hide?

BIG, BAD, MAD

ALL-NEW, ALL-AWESOME GUINNESS

HUMONGOUS HAIR

The record for the World's Longest Moustache belongs to Ram Singh Chauhan from India. His mo measures 2.5m and he started growing it in 1982! But it's Toshie Kawakami from Japan who holds the record for Longest Eyebrow Hair. It measured 17.8m to snag the record!

BIG HITTER

A cricket bat used by Aussie legend, Sir Donald Bradman, in his debut test match was sold for $145,000 on September 24, 2008. It scored the record for the Most Expensive Cricket Bat.

RAMPED UP RECORD

On March 29, 2008 Cameron Sinclair pulled off the record for Longest Ramp-to-Ramp Backflip On A Motorcycle. The Aussie backflipped a huge 39.49m at the Crusty Demons Night of World Records at Calder Park Raceway in Melbourne.

MEGA MOUTHFUL

The Longest String of Liquorice record was set by the Junee Liquorice and Chocolate Factory in Oz. It made a 244m long liquorice string on March 8, 2008. Sounds like a Cloudy With A Chance of Meatballs ingredient!

DON'T TRY THIS AT HOME!

Aussie and former AFL champ, Shane Crawford, took the record for Most Spiders On A Body For 30 Seconds when 153 spiders jumped on him during a TV show on April 23, 2009. That's 1,224 spider legs for one record!

AND A RAD RECORDS

WORLD RECORDS AHEAD!

FREAKY FEAST

The record for Strangest Diet goes to an ostrich at London Zoo. After it died, an alarm clock, Belgian coin, roll of film, three gloves, a handkerchief, a pencil and more crazy contraptions were found in its tummy!

LONG IN THE TOOTH

The record for Oldest Dog goes to an Australian dog called Bluey. He worked as a cattle and sheep dog and lived to be 29 years and five months old - in human, not dog, years!

TALLEST BOY ON EARTH

He's only 13, but Brenden Adams is already 225.1cm tall (way taller than a door frame)! He lives in the US and luckily his growth has slowed to 0.5cm a year.

GOIN' MASSIVE IN A MINI

On July 25, 2009 in Auckland, NZ, 24 people crammed into a new Mini car. The record for Most People Crammed into A Mini was part of the NZ Smashes Guinness World Records TV series. Mission accomplished!

Collect more crazy cool records in Guinness World Records 2010: The Book Of The Decade - Out now!

SUPER SIPAHH

You could be the lucky winner of a Wii Console
+ game OR a Nintendo DSi + game!

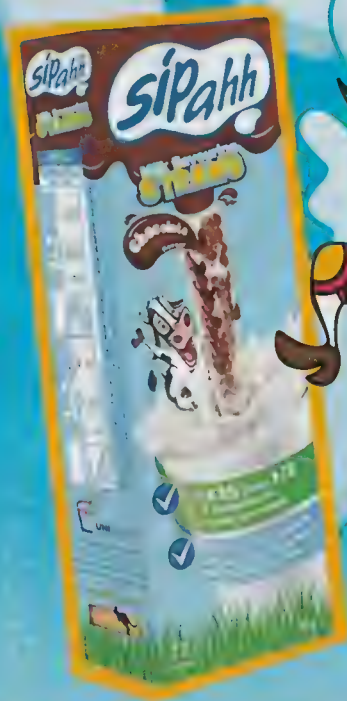

DIP A SIPAHH

Rather than flavour your milk, Sipahh puts the flavour in the straw. Little beads of flavour... Do yourself a favour. Dip, sip and say ahh! What a fun way to have milk and make mum happy! Go on, dip a Sipahh today.

WHAT IS SIPAHH?

Every Sipahh milk flavouring straw is filled with cool special beads that contain all the flavour and excitement needed to make drinking milk cool and fun.

As the milk is sipped through the straw, the beads dissolve and add a blast of flavour to your glass of milk. Sipahh 'wakes up milk' - it's simple, fun and yummy!

HOW TO... REDUCE RUBBISH

Rethink, reuse and recycle!

Ask your mum to buy items with less plastic for buying and make your own recycling kit.

Equally, ask your mum to buy things that are made of glass or metal.

Use your parents' fridge to store a reusable bag to reduce the amount of plastic bags that go to landfill.

AUTO PILOT

THE NEW MERCEDES-BENZ SLS AMG 'GULLWING' IS A SUPERCAR WITH AWESOME AEROPLANE STYLE.

Wing It. There are no points for guessing where this rockin' ride gets its 'Gullwing' nickname. Its distinct doors open straight up into a pair of wicked 'wings.' This baby can't fly – but it does soar across the streets!

Jet Power

This cool mod rocket isn't called a 'super-car' just because it looks super cool. It's packed with a whopping 428 kilowatts of power, almost as much as a v8 Supercar – but with twice the style!

Fast Flyer

When the SLS AMG takes off, it goes from zero to 100km/hr in 3.6 seconds, before hitting a top speed of 317km/hr. That's some 133% acceleration.

Cruise Control

One of the coolest things about this electric speedster is that when you're tearing up the track and reach 120km/hr, a small rear spoiler automatically pops up out of the boot to give the driver greater control. Now that's a driver car!

Cool Cockpit! As if this cool cruiser didn't already look like it could take to the skies, the Gullwing's designers built the car so that its inside looks like the cockpit of a plane. "Kssssshhhhh! Gullwing, you are cleared for take-off. Kssssshhhhh!"

Time Machine Although the SLS AMG is a kick-butt modern drive, it's actually designed to be a total blast from the past. Its look and 'Gullwing' doors are based on the Mercedes-Benz 300 SL Coupe, a car that was built way back in the 1950s.

JOYSTICK JOB

I spend one to two hours a day playing games, but at busy times of the year, like Christmas, there are heaps of games that come out at the same time, so I get to play a lot more!

AWESOME OFFICE

I've got a TV set up in my attic with all the consoles and handhelds. It's also where I do all my writing to keep K-Zoners in the know!

EXTREME EVENTS

Games events are the coolest part of my job. I get to go along and play games that are being made or are about to be released. I also get to talk about the games with their makers.

CELEB SHOWDOWNS

I get to meet heaps of celebrities! Tony Hawk was my fave. He's a cool guy and he's good because he knows his games and he's actually involved in the making of them.

FEEL THE FORCE

My coolest adventure was when I went to Skywalker Ranch where Star Wars creator George Lucas lives and makes Star Wars TV shows, games and movies! In the US. There was heaps of Star Wars memorabilia and you could see all George Lucas' scripts, books and heaps of movie props.

GAMEZONE

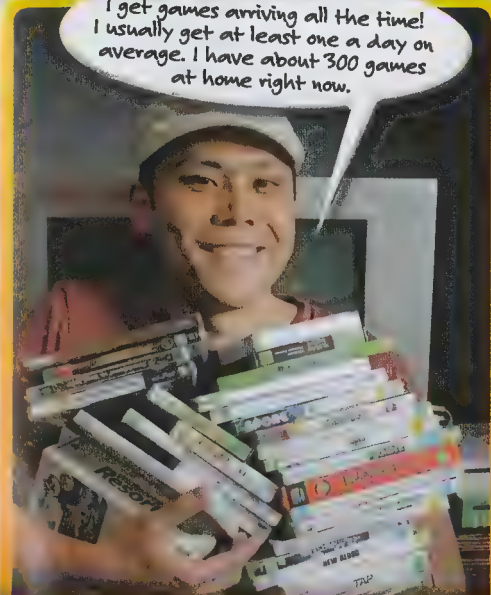

OVERSEAS ADVENTURER

As K-Z's gaming expert, I travel overseas and visit the studios where developers make games and show off stuff they're working on. I also go to the big gaming conventions, like E3 and Comic-Con.

SUPER GAMING STOCKPILE

I get games arriving all the time! I usually get at least one a day on average. I have about 300 games at home right now.

Gaming conventions like E3 are awesome! It's just like being in an arcade. You can play any game you want all day and you don't have to leave. It's like videogame heaven!

IN THE NEWS

Battling for galactic peace never seems to stop! There are two brand new Star Wars games to check out and they're not in a galaxy far, far away - they're on page 96!

The PSP has been out for a while, but now it's the PSP Go's turn. The Go is about half the size of a regular PSP, uses a very fast Micro for memory and can download media like games, movies and music. It's out now.

How crazy are you about Pokémon? Japan's Pokémon Center Tokyo is like heaven for fans! It's packed with all kinds of Poké goodies, including all the videogames, card games, toys and everything else ever released. Stay tuned 'cos we'll be showing you some cool stuff from there real soon!

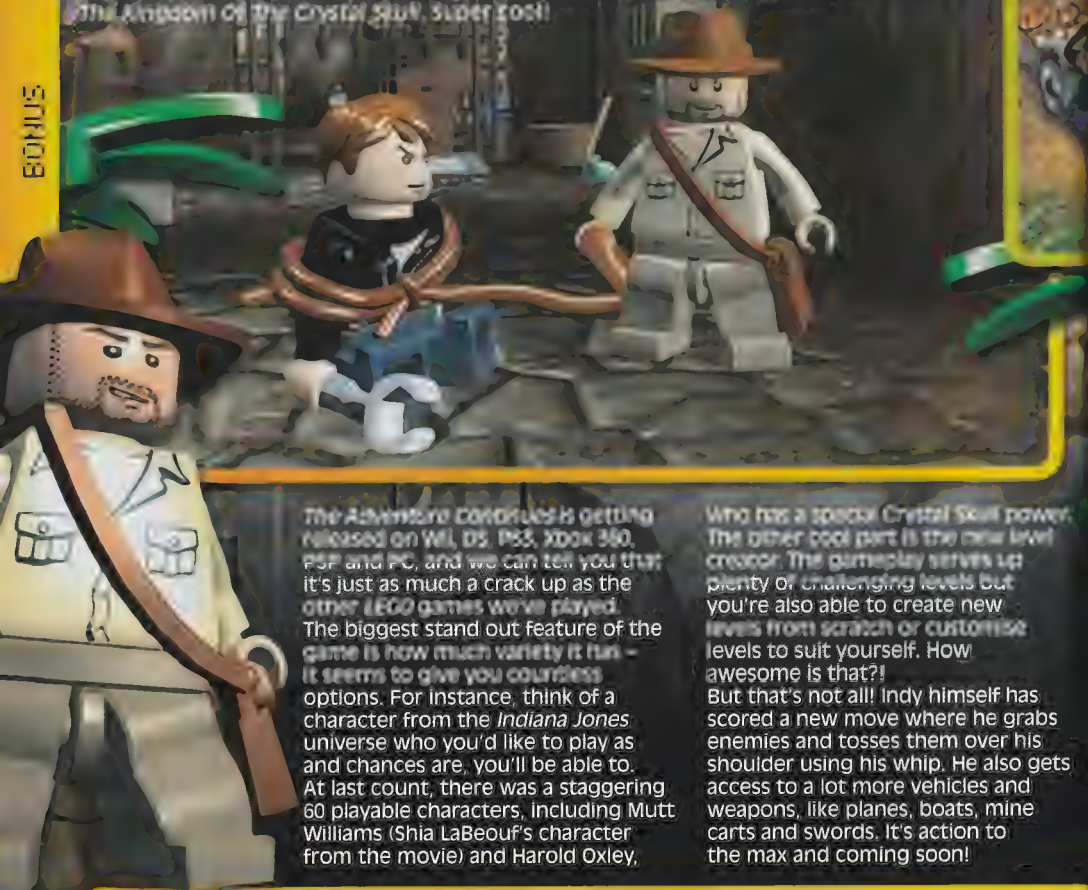

GAMEZONE

JAM-PACKED WITH JUICY JOYSTICK ACTION!

THE WORLD'S GREATEST ARCHAEOLOGIST HAS UNROLLED HIS WHIP. WHACKED ON HIS HAT AND IS SET FOR SOME ALL-NEW ARTEFACT CHASING IN THE NEW GAME LEGO INDIANA JONES 2: THE ADVENTURE CONTINUES!

INDY'S NEW ACTION ADVEN

Following on from last year's hit LEGO Indy game - The Original Adventures - this brand-new quest is set to blow you away! The Adventure Continues will follow on from the first game in that it will have gameplay based on the first three Indiana Jones movies (Raiders Of The Lost Ark, The Temple Of Doom and The Last Crusade). However, it will also add to the mix gameplay based on the fourth movie - The Kingdom Of The Crystal Skull. Super cool!

The Adventure Continues is getting released on Wii, DS, PS3, Xbox 360, PSP and PC, and we can tell you that it's just as much a crack up as the other LEGO games we've played. The biggest stand out feature of the game is how much variety it has - it seems to give you countless options. For instance, think of a character from the Indiana Jones universe who you'd like to play as and chances are, you'll be able to. At last count, there was a staggering 60 playable characters, including Mutt Williams (Shia LaBeouf's character from the movie) and Harold Oxley, who has a special Crystal Skull power. The other cool part is the new level creator. The gameplay serves up plenty of challenging levels but you're also able to create new levels from scratch or customise levels to suit yourself. How awesome is that?! But that's not all! Indy himself has scored a new move where he grabs enemies and tosses them over his shoulder using his whip. He also gets access to a lot more vehicles and weapons, like planes, boats, mine carts and swords. It's action to the max and coming soon!

TURE!

CHARACTER CRAZINESS

All the playable characters are unlocked by collecting artefacts around each of the levels. As well as Indy, Matt and Harold Oxley, Indy heroes and villains like Marion Ravenwood, Short Round, Rorie Bellori, Willie Scott, Marcus Brody, Professor Henry Jones Sr. and Irina Spalko all appear in the game. That's a major plus, because there's heaps of character swapping in the game play and it adds to different player combinations when you're playing in two-player co-op mode.

FIRST LOOK!

THE FORCE

THERE ARE TWO STAR WARS GAMES IN THE GALAXY RIGHT NOW AND THEY COULDN'T BE ANY MORE DIFFERENT FROM ONE ANOTHER!

The first game, Star Wars: The Clone Wars: Republic Heroes, is out now and based on the zoon. It throws you into an adventure where you have to chase down the mysterious bounty hunter Cad Bane and battle it out against a super villain called Kul Teska. While Republic Heroes was developed right here in Australia (by the top games company Krome Studios), Star Wars: Battlefront: Elite Squadron was made overseas especially for handhelds and is out on November 4. Both the DS and PSP versions let you play as Star Wars' most famous characters ever, like Luke Skywalker, Darth Vader, Boba Fett, Kit Fisto and Darth Maul. It's also set on the series' main planets, like Endor and Hoth. Whichever way you look at it, Star Wars fans are gonna be super spoilt for Jedi choice!

IS COMING!

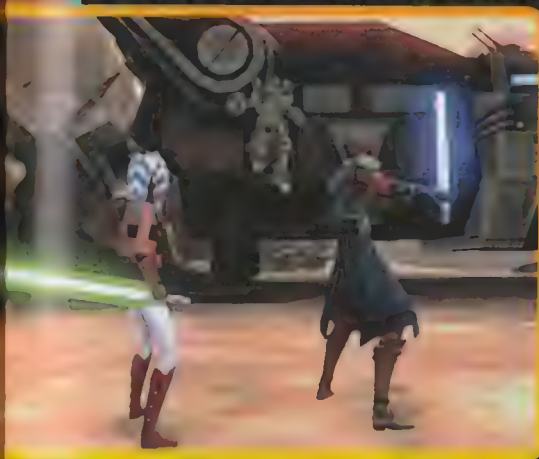

STAR WARS THE CLONE WARS: REPUBLIC HEROES

It's all about co-op play in The Clone Wars: Republic Heroes. There are around 30 missions to tackle and because you're able to play as both Jedi Knights and clones, the trick is to make sure you and your buddy take advantage of each character's strengths.

When we had our first play we worked out that the Jedi characters' extra power and lightsaber skills made them better at destruction. They're definitely the G-O when it comes time to slice up attacking enemies. On the other hand, the clones are actually better at coming into an area to clear and sweep it because of the lasers they get equipped with. Clones also have the ability to commandeer droids and are handier than Jedi when it comes to levels involving vehicles like AT-STs.

Mad followers of the Star Wars universe will also be stoked to see that the game has introduced four brand-new clones!

Playing the game is a lot like playing an actual (long) episode of the cartoon. As well as looking a lot like the cartoon, it sounds a lot like it – probably because the actors that voice the TV show have also voiced the characters for the game. The plot, however, is unique to the game and it was written by the TV series' writing team, who have set the action between Series One and Two. Republic Heroes is out now on Wii, DS, Xbox 360, PS3, PSP and PC. Plus, as an added bonus, the PS3 and Xbox 360 versions also support two-player online multiplayer play.

DID U KNOW?

IN TOTAL THERE HAVE BEEN AROUND 100 STAR WARS GAMES AND EXPANSION PACKS RELEASED SINCE THE FIRST STAR WARS MOVIE CAME OUT – AND THAT DOESN'T INCLUDE ALL THE MOBILE PHONE OR INTERNET FLASH GAMES!

THE WEAPONS

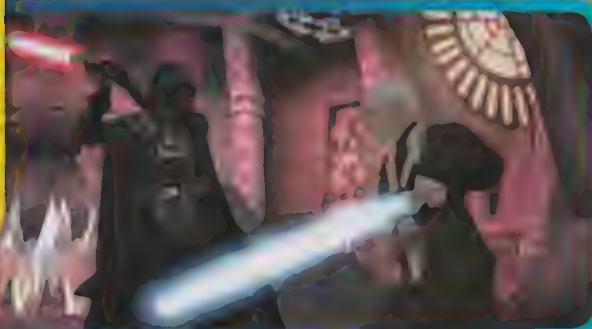

Lightsabers are the weapon of choice for Jedi, but clones also handle weapons that pack a real punch! In fact, we had the biggest blast mucking around with the game's rocket launchers, thermal detonators and jet packs. Awesome arsenal alert!

STAR WARS BATTLEFRONT: ELITE SQUADRON

With a brand-new story, Elite Squadron pushes multiplayer combat action on handhelds to a new level. What we like most is that it gives you a real feeling of freedom. The action doesn't seem to stop no matter if you're fighting it out on the ground, flying an X-wing or even if you've managed to infiltrate and attack a Capital Ship that's floating high in the sky.

BONUS

ELITE SQUADRON IS SUPPOSED TO BE A SPIN-OFF OF THE STAR WARS BATTLEFRONT SERIES, AND IT'S THE BIGGEST STAR WARS GAME WE'VE SEEN ON A HANDHELD!

Fights are really diverse, with the action changing as quickly as you can blink. A battle might actually start on the ground, but you often have to grab a vehicle and take off into space before coming back to land! In Elite Squadron, you play as a clone trooper, named X2, who has plans to join the Rebellion. The thing is, you actually share the blood of a Jedi Master and have a brother—X1!

Battlefront fans will know that the first game was set mainly at ground level and the second in the sky, while Star Wars Battlefront: Renegade Squadron was known for its excellent character creation. Well, Elite Squadron combines elements from all three. There are other awesome tie-ins and you can even team up with Commander Col Serra from Renegade Squadron and Rahm Kota from The Force Unleashed!

POKÉMON MYSTERY DUNGEON: EXPLORERS OF SKY

COMING TO: DS

In Explorers Of Sky you actually become a Pokémon! After teaming up with a partner Pokémon, your job is to head out to save the world. Of course, that's just the start of it. This game is packed with secrets and new 'Special Episodes' that form part of the Mystery Dungeon story. There are 19 Pokémon to play as, but there are another 490 to encounter, once you start to explore. Items from the game can also be traded with Explorers Of Time and Explorers Of Darkness, and special missions will open up if you have a Wi-Fi connection. Want to know more? Check out K-Zone next month because we're pumpin' up the 'Poké power'!

PREVIEWS

WHERE THE WILD THINGS ARE

COMING TO: Wii, DS, PS3, XBOX 360

Where The Wild Things Are is one of the most well-known children's books of all time and now a movie and game based on the original are on their way. We got to play a sweet preview version of the game and now K-Zone can give you the inside info: the story is different from both the book and movie! It's a single-player action-platformer where you mostly play as the book's main character, Max. The story is that the land of the Wild Things is under threat and you have to lead them to safety. The game lets you ride the Wild Things and there's heaps of combat, puzzle-solving and around 400 things to find and collect. Plus, Max's voice was recorded by the star of the movie, Max Records!

Hey K-Zone! Keep your sweet mag coming. Peace out! - Corey

K-Zone ruiz! - Jasper

CARS RACE-O-RAMA

COMING TO: WII, DS, PS3, PS2, PSP, XBOX 360

It's not the first Cars game, so we'll cut straight to the new stuff! There are 12 new playable characters, it's easier than even the first Cars game (so good to play against a little brother or sister), the tracks vary from city streets to desert and beaches, and it comes with a red plastic steering wheel. The two main additions we found most impressive though were the car customisation (rims, hood, bumpers, spoiler and paint can be personalised) and the ability to 'drift' at high speeds, which is when you slightly lose control of your rear wheels but you're still able to take corners turbo fast!

PREVIEWS

SPONGEBOB'S TRUTH OR SQUARE

COMING TO: WII, DS, PSP, XBOX 360

In true SpongeBob SquarePants fashion, Truth Or Square is totally bizarre. SpongeBob has lost a secret recipe that Mr. Krabs has entrusted him with, and to get it back he has to use a memory machine to help him remember the happiest times of his life. There's some funny new character morphing, which makes the gameplay just as mad. In WaterBob sponge form you're able to spew liquid and stun enemies. And as a cannon, you can aim and shoot 'em down. Plus, the bosses are ridiculously huge – check out the MASSIVE Patrick robot in the screenshot!

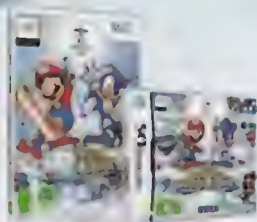

MARIO & SONIC AT THE OLYMPIC WINTER GAMES

THE WHOLE WORLD HAS COME TO PLAY!

Take to the snow and ice with all your favourite characters, for the most winter fun ever seen on Wii™ and Nintendo DS! Compete against your friends or work as a team as you go for gold in a host of adrenaline-pumping winter competitions and fun-filled dream events. On Wii™, use the new Balance Board to really feel the thrills, and on Nintendo DS™, embark on an amazing winter adventure. MARIO & SONIC AT THE OLYMPIC WINTER GAMES

Sonic and Mario have always had a frosty relationship, but this is something else... The worlds of Nintendo and SEGA collide once more for a full-on Olympic contest in the lead up to next year's Winter Olympics. Mario & Sonic At The Olympic Winter Games is way more physical than the Summer Olympics game was for Wii and uses the Wii Fit Board for events like bobsleigh (where you need to sit on it).

The DS, on the other hand, adds some RPG elements as you build up characters' skillz. There are more dream events too, which are open from the start (these are the game's own twisted take on real winter sports). Plus, keep a look out for the rare Metal Sonic character! This game is both hilarious and super fun and will be great for fans of the videogame icons and sports alike.

ACADEMY OF CHAMPIONS

GENRE: PARTY SPORTS
AVAILABLE ON: WII
RATING: 6
RELEASE DATE: OUT NOW!

Throw the Harry Potter books into a blender with a soccer legend and you'll get this game! Academy Of Champions is set in a soccer academy, with no less than Brazilian legend Pelé as the headmaster! There's a story to the game, but it's the mini-games and challenges that keep you busiest. Gamers will also get a big kick from spotting all the cameo appearances from characters like the Raving Rabbids, Sam Fisher and Rayman in the game. Heaps of sweet soccer tricks can be mastered with perfect timing too, like super tackles, banana kicks and a wicked kick called the 'Eagle Strike.' It's best played with the Motion Plus 'cos it makes moves like dodges way more accurate.

C'MON GET happy

In celebration of McHappy Day, which brings smiles to faces across the country, we put cricket superstar, MICHAEL SLATER to the happiness test!

What makes you happy?

Surfing, golf, an afternoon at the beach with my family.

What's the strangest thing you've ever done for fun?

Bungee jump in Las Vegas over a tiny pool... More of a dare than for fun!

Tell us about the happiest moment of your life?

Without doubt the births of my son and daughter (scoring a century at Lords, the home of cricket, made me pretty happy as well).

When you were having a hard time on the sports field, what did you think about to bring back a positive frame of mind?

Would always think back to a time when I was playing well and try and rediscover the feeling.

Is winning everything?

I think it's very important to be competitive and prepare as thoroughly as possible. This way you always give yourself the best opportunity to perform to your potential. No matter the result, if you give 100 per cent, you can hold your head high.

Who makes you smile more than anyone else?

If my wife and family are in good spirits I just smile all the time. It's like the saying goes: Happy wife, happy life!!

You have a little boy - what do you most love doing together?

Playing any sport in the backyard. He giggles his head off and loves it.

When you feel sad, what do you do to feel happy again?

I find exercising is a great way to blow off steam and get things in perspective again. Surfing is a great stress relief.

Can you tell us why you support McHappy Day?

Now being a very proud dad and fully understanding the unconditional love you feel for your kids, to be part of McHappy Day is a small way I can contribute to supporting children and their families in need. To hopefully make a small difference is a nice feeling.

GET AMPED! MCHAPPY DAY IS ON SATURDAY NOVEMBER 14 2009.

WHAT IS MCHAPPY DAY?

McHappy Day raises funds for Ronald McDonald House Charities - helping sick kids and their families live happier lives. Every year celebrities appear in McDonald's restaurants on McHappy Day across Australia.

Check out the website to find out where celebrities will be appearing this McHappy Day!

SPECTROBES: ORIGINS

ACTION-RPG AVAILABLE ON
WII
STARTING 10
MAY 2008
OUT NOW!

Developed exclusively for Wii, this is a good all-round action-RPG with nice graphics and some cool combat. We were pretty pumped to see how the game would work on Wii after playing it so much on DS and it does a decent job. The series' main characters, Kylon and Jorral, are back and they have to fight off monsters called the Kraw who are trying to take over the planet Wyterra. The best parts of the game are the motion-controlled sections. You use the Wii remote to attack and dodge in combat, and exploration mini-games are excellent fun. The game does have some bonus missions and a minor co-op support.

THE THIRD DIMENSION

While we can technically say the games we play are already in 3-D, they've still been a fair way off tricking our eyes into actually believing the on-screen objects are real things that we can touch, grab and hold. Until now! Two games have just been released, and there's a groundbreaking one that's just around the corner and will take

3-D gaming to a whole new level. Some mini-games in Toy Story Mania! on Wii and the entire G-FORCE game on PS3 and Xbox 360 have been developed in 3-D, and they work great! To make the 3-D jump out, you wear glasses with one red lens and one blue lens (just like you got with this mag). It makes for a sweet effect!

James Cameron's Avatar: The Game is coming out at the end of the year and it will be massive! It uses 'stereoscopic' 3-D technology to work and while it will also come as a 'regular' game, it will work especially well with a stereoscopic TV (hardly anyone in the world owns one right now). In Avatar you spend most of your time in a jungle-covered planet called Pandora and when we had a sneak peek, we were so convinced by the visual effects, we thought we were about to trip over the in-game logs that were lying around! Keep an eye out for 3-D games 'cos they're the future of gaming!

PUNCH-OUT!!

Wii

Are you getting slammed? Keep getting stuck on the same opponent? This little tip will help you for sure because it gives you some extra health back. All you have to do is hit the (-) button between rounds and you will get a chime to confirm it worked. Your health will then increase at the start of the next round. Be careful when you use it though, because you can only do it once!

I have Let's Tap on Wii and was wondering if there are any new Game modes that can be found. Got any help K-Zone gang?

JOEL, VIA EMAIL

There sure are. Clear the 'Alchemist' mode in 'Silent Blocks' for Binary mode, clear 'Gem Game' in 'Visualizer' for Ocean mode and beat 'Rhythm Tap' with an 'S' to unlock more songs.
